

PREPMUN

Crisis Staff Registration

ABOUT OUR CRISIS

The Crisis Team for PREPMUN 2020 will comprise a team of Student Officers responsible for planning and running the online crisis simulation. This includes preparing pre-conference materials, encouraging discourse between delegates, facilitating debate, and playing the role of backroom during the crisis simulation.

Being a member of the Crisis Team will involve a substantial commitment over the course of the year, and every Student Officer in this team will play a pivotal role in crafting and shaping this crisis. A substantial commitment is thus required of all applicants.

PREPMUN prides itself on being a preparatory conference to help inculcate skills of diplomacy and a passion for political and socio-economic issues which shape the world. This guiding principle extends to PREPMUN Crisis; we hope to be a platform to expand interest in Crisis and train participants in the relevant skills involved.

With the unique set of circumstances created by COVID-19, we hope to take advantage of online platforms amidst social distancing to craft a highly challenging and exciting Crisis experience for our delegates. You may read up more on our Crisis in our prospectus, which can be found here.

Upon completion of the form, click here to automatically draft an email to our Secretariat. This form must be submitted before 3 July 2020, 2359 hours (GMT+8). No late submissions will be considered.

RULES AND INSTRUCTIONS

Rules

Application forms must be submitted by July 3, 2020, 2359 hrs (GMT+8). Interviews will be conducted on a rolling basis during the weekends: 27, 28 June and 4, 5, 11, 12 July. Successful applicants will be informed of their interview slots via email. The interviews will be conducted virtually via video conferencing.

This form should be submitted over email to our DSG (Academics), Najmus Sadat Nahian at academics@prepmun.sg. CC our Secretary-General, Akshath Malik at akshath@prepmun.sg.

Instructions: Prerequisites

Applicants need not have prior experience as Student Officers/Crisis Staff, but preferably should have attended crisis simulation conferences before or had stellar participation in non-crisis councils (Model UN/ASEAN/EU, for instance);

They must be conversant with the MUN format and rules of procedure, with global affairs in general, and should understand the fundamentals of how crisis councils operate.

Applicants who are currently pursuing their Secondary education or pre-university education in a Junior College are required to provide the contact details of a teacher from their institution.

This is meant for any cases of emergency or disciplinary issues. For other applicants, do provide the contact details of a parent/guardian.

Instructions: Letter of Application

Applicants must return this form – together with a letter of application – by July 3, 2020, 2359 hrs (GMT+8). In 700 words or less, the letter of application should detail:

1. Why the applicant wishes to be a part of PREPMUN;
2. If applicable References to relevant participation in MUN, Crisis, as well as other relevant extracurricular activities or skills (e.g. programming, visual design);
3. A description of the applicant's vision of Crisis and what he/she hopes to achieve in PREPMUN Crisis 2020 if he/she is selected;
4. Preference for Frontroom/Backroom.

Instructions: Declaration of Commitments

Applicants are to fill up the Declaration of Commitments Section to the best of their ability, including commitments that do not clash with the dates of compulsory events for Crisis Staff. This is to inform the Secretariat on the availability of the applicant once he or she is accepted as Crisis Staff.

Failure to complete any of the aforementioned may result in your application being unsuccessful.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Before the conference, Crisis Staff will be required to write the Study Guides for their respective councils or committees.

Regardless of experience in crisis there will likely be additional trainings for all Crisis Staff members to be held depending on the experience of Crisis Staff members recruited. Crisis staff members who have limited experience in Crisis may be requested to attend or participate in additional Crisis Training Programmes.

Attendance of the following events is compulsory for all Crisis Staff:

1. Introductory meeting (Virtual Conferencing): 18th July or 19th July
2. Rehearsals and dry-runs for the simulation: Between October and December 2020
3. Day 0 & Actual Crisis Run: 13th December to 17th December 2020
4. Meetings and training sessions: Various sessions and meetings to be conducted between July and December 2020 (Via Virtual Conferencing until physical meetings are deemed safe)

Besides the periods stated in advance – such as examinations and overseas trips – Student Officers should remain contactable via email at all times.
